

Dominican Republic

Looking for your very own treasure island?

Enjoy a week in tropical paradise, in the Dominican Republic – Puerto Plata. This relaxing retreat offers sand the colour of ivory lapped by turquoise water. Along with sunshine to light up your days, you've everything you'd expect to find on a Caribbean holiday.

Just 13 miles (21km) from the airport, you'll be stepping off the plane and starting your holiday proper in next to no time. Free transportation from airport to resort is one of the many things included on your all-inclusive stay. Others include the following:

Sunday Night Welcome Party on the beach where the tables are as elegantly dressed as the staff. Feast on a buffet dinner accompanied by national and international alcoholic dinners, live music, dancers, and fireworks. End the meal in style with a local cigar.

The Thursday Party also includes music. Plus there's access to the Bravissimo Show. Entertainment which wouldn't look out of place in Las Vegas.

An all-inclusive package allows you to eat at the resort's international buffets. Should you require more choice on the culinary front, take your pick from 15 speciality restaurants offering cuisines such as Asian, Italian, Mexican, steakhouse, and seafood.

Along with a couple of nightclubs and a pair of spas. Ensuring there's never a dull moment.
